

I am an active amateur radio operator and short-wave listener and am quite concerned about the forecast increase in man-made noise in the HF band. Please do not activate BPL until all implementations are proven to not interfere with current legitimate usage of HF spectrum.

Thank you,

Mark Sheffield